 - 2. Continued payment of dividends, growing over time
- 3. New business M&A

3. Investment in Group Companies, including through buy-backs

Strong balance sheet providing resilience through business cycle

Near term priorities:

- Reduce gearing nearer to historic norms e.g. cash proceeds from Zhongsheng
- Restart inorganic investment new M&A &/or share buybacks

Outlook for 2H 2021

Jardines

- Encouraging signs of recovery in Q2, but pandemic continues to cause uncertainty
- Gradual recovery expected to continue, albeit at uneven pace:
 - Trading conditions expected to remain challenging in most sectors and markets
 - Impact of pandemic worsening in some markets in Southeast Asia
 - Tougher comparables make moderate growth likely in 2H
 - Most businesses will remain below 2019 sales and profits levels for full year
- Earnings per share growth will drive improved dividend cover, while allowing some uplift in the final dividend
- Expected completion (subject to relevant approvals) of transfer of Mercedes-Benz auto dealership on the Chinese mainland to Zhongsheng
- Continued focus on debt reduction & opportunities for future growth
